

New Contracts – Joint Working Group

Colleagues

Since the introduction of the new flexible contract in March 2017 there has been some confusion upon the contracts and the way in which they are being offered. GMB members have made contact with GMB requesting clarification.

These requests have been passed through myself, in the GMB London Region, and have been discussed at our regular Retail BAU meetings with ASDA House.

It was proposed by GMB that a joint working group was formed to specifically look at the new contracts, the guidance surrounding them and how they are to be delivered in stores.

Fortnightly meetings have now been put in place, with three GMB officers and two ASDA GMB National Representatives. I was elected to be part of the working group and look forward to gaining answers and clarification to your questions.

I therefore need information from yourselves upon the new contracts, how they could affect you, how they were presented to you and what your concerns are.

Please visit our GMB Members Support Centre at www.gmb-asda.com/support so that your views can be raised during the working group meetings.

Regards

Nathan Clarke
