GMB – WORKING FOR YOU IN ASDA

February 2011 - 69

REVIEW OF COLLEAGUE CANTEENS

Dear Colleague

As you may be aware, the company is carrying out an extended trial into canteen provisions. At the National Forum the trade union side recognised that the quality of food available to stores workers varies across stores.

GMB is involved in the trial process. We are assured our feedback will be taken into account as the trial moves forward. The National Forum shop stewards will be visiting a trial store to get first hand experience of the facilities being offered.

Catering is a hugely emotive issue for many stores workers. There is no doubt Asda is seeking to save money on colleague catering. It will be essential that GMB Shop Stewards are vigilant throughout the trial. With the support of members we will challenge Asda to ensure our members have access to decent canteen facilities.
