

ASDA Park Royal and ASDA Hounslow

Colleagues,

ASDA Hounslow and ASDA Park Royal are currently subject to a consultation for redundancy following the proposal by ASDA to close their home shopping departments.

I wrote to the company on 4th August 2017 to highlight that GMB London Region had serious concerns regarding the way in which consultation had occurred.

I highlighted that GMB feel that there has not been meaningful consultation and that there does not appear to be a focus upon securing positions for those affected.

Following this communication being sent it has been agreed to suspend the two consultations within ASDA Hounslow and ASDA Park Royal to enable the company to provide the information to GMB, previously requested, and for meaningful consultation to occur.

Throughout any consultation process GMB will endeavour to secure hours for our members and ensure that the process followed is fair.

GMB London Region will be making arrangements to meet in the two stores and to speak with affected members

If you require any support during these or any further consultation occurring within ASDA please speak to your GMB Shop Steward or visit www.gmb-asda.com/support

Regards
